

Infectious Disease Specialist – Department of Medicine

Infectious Disease at WRH: A contagious career opportunity.

Windsor Regional Hospital's Department of Medicine is actively seeking a passionate and skilled Infectious Disease (ID) Specialist to join our growing team. You'll work alongside two dedicated ID consultants and a supportive group of allied health professionals in a busy academic community setting. This is a unique opportunity to provide exceptional care to a diverse patient population, from individuals with complex vascular diseases to allogeneic bone marrow transplant recipients.

This role offers the best of both worlds: the fast-paced, hands-on experience of a community hospital combined with the academic prestige of the Schulich School of Medicine, Western University. As part of our affiliation with the Schulich School of Medicine and Dentistry, the successful candidate will be required to teach medical students and Internal Medicine Residents on the ID Consult Service and lectures.

Why Choose Infectious Disease at WRH?

- Diverse Clinical Practice: You'll manage a bustling inpatient consultative service, an on-site clinic with dedicated office space, and a well-established HIV outpatient care program.
- Pioneering Research: You'll have access to unique and impactful research opportunities.
- Academic Affiliation: Take advantage of our affiliation with the Schulich School of Medicine. You'll be required to apply for an academic appointment, allowing you to blend clinical practice with teaching and research.
- Collaborative Environment: Become part of a truly team-oriented group committed to providing outstanding, patient-centered care.

Your Responsibilities Will Include:

- Delivering high-quality infectious disease consultative services to a diverse inpatient population.
- Providing patient care within our in-hospital clinic and contribute to our dedicated HIV care program.
- Fulfilling the department's academic mission through an appointment with the Schulich School of Medicine.
- Optional: Participate in our general internal medicine services, if you wish to broaden your scope.

What you bring to Our Team:

- Licensure with the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Ontario (CPSO).
- Certification with, or eligibility for, the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada in Infectious Diseases.
- A strong commitment to delivering compassionate, patient-centered care.
- A collaborative spirit and the desire to thrive in a busy, academic community hospital environment.

If you are a compassionate and skilled Infectious Disease specialist ready to make a significant impact in a dynamic healthcare setting, we invite you to apply today and join us in our commitment to excellence.

Interested candidates should submit their Curriculum Vitae (CV) to:

Dr. Ian Mazzetti, Chief of Medicine
C/o Chelsey Thornton – Medical Affairs

Why Windsor Regional Hospital?

Windsor Regional Hospital (WRH) offers the opportunity for a fantastic career in an award-winning health care facility. WRH is a 600 bed multi-site health service organization providing Acute Medical and Surgical Services including Renal, Trauma, Emergency, Family Birthing Centre, Neonatal Intensive Care, Paediatric Services, Critical Care (ICU/CCU), Regional Cancer Services (Inpatient Oncology, Windsor Regional Cancer Centre, Breast Health Centre), Neurosciences and Mental Health Services to 400,000 people in Windsor and Essex County.

In recognition of the growing needs of the region, WRH plans for a major reform of the Windsor-Essex Hospitals System, which includes the construction of a state-of-the-art acute care hospital. WRH is actively planning to break ground on the new acute care hospital in 2026. To learn more, go to <http://www.wrh.on.ca/windsorhospitals>

Why Windsor-Essex?

The Windsor-Essex area is ecologically rich with extensive parkland, along with a southwest location that extends warm weather activities such as golfing, gardening, and water sports. Windsor offers the unique opportunities of a larger metropolitan area and the benefits of a smaller community. Located in a vibrant border city, Windsor offers an exceptional quality of life. The region boasts a lower cost of living compared to other major Canadian cities and a short commute time, giving you more time for what matters most - your home and family. The city is rich with cultural attractions, beautiful waterfront parks, and a diverse culinary scene. It's an ideal place to establish a practice and enjoy a balanced lifestyle.

OUR MISSION: PROVIDE QUALITY PERSON-CENTRED HEALTHCARE TO OUR COMMUNITY.
